Subject: The Future of Delegated Authority: What's Changing

Below is an invite to a broker specific webinar (2 dates available) we have arranged with Lloyd's for LIIBA members.

The webinar is available to any personnel within broking firms and will cover work completed on the DA Programme to date, provide information about how all the workstreams are progressing towards implementation and how the DA Programme fits with the Future at Lloyd's initiatives.

The date and times of the hour long sessions are:

1. Tuesday 16th June at 10am or
2. Thursday 18th at 1.30pm

Paul Brady and other senior level personnel associated with the DA Programme will be presenting.

We strongly encourage as many people as possible sign up for one of the above sessions, so please feel free to pass on internally to colleagues.

To book a place please click the link within the invite below, which will direct you to a booking form where you can select which session you wish to attend.

After registering, Lloyd's will forward a confirmation email which contains the calendar invite. Adding the calendar will also confirm the dial in details.
